A NUMBER of Galician wagons were drawn up back of Morris store on Tuesday and a woman and her four month old baby were left in charge while the men attended to their business in town. When the storm broke a cow which they had bought stamped, and the woman left the baby under a wagon and started after the fractious bovine. The baby remained under the wagon during the terrible wind, dust and rain and when found by a man who was passing after the storm subsided had been badly buffeted by the elements and completely exhausted, besides being almost smothered by the dust. It was brought into Morris store with warm, dry clothing was revived.

A WIND, dust and rain storm, accompanied by a little hail, occurred on Tuesday afternoon, and while it lasted it was decidedly tornado-like in its appearance and demeanor. Up to late in the afternoon the day had been very pleasant, but soon after four the clouds lowered until it was almost as dark as night, and without warning a gale burst over the town and swept down the streets. Trees and telephone wires were blown down, and the dust raised so that it was impossible to see across the street. After the wind and the dust came the rain and for half an hour it poured steadily. With the rain was a little hail which did no damage, being only small and lasting but a few minutes. After the rain the weather cleared and the storm passed as quickly as it came. The first gust of wind took off the roof from the unfinished elevator of the Dowling Milling Co.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, JULY 20TH, 1899.

PARLIAMENTARY.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier in reply to Sir Chas. Tupper in the house, said that a senate reform resolution would be brought down this session.The postmaster-general in supply, said he expected to give a weekly mail service to Yukon for the summer, fortnightly by mounted police, and fortnightly by contract. He intended to try to give a weekly service in winter if it was not too expensive. It was hoped to improve the service this winter by using horses instead of dogs on Lake Bennett. It was intended to gradually dispense with the services of mounted police in connection with the mails, but not completely until it was felt perfectly safe to do so. He intended to have a test this year of the efficiency of the police work and the work by private contractors.Mr. Sifton has decided to recommend the appointment of an independent commission to look into the complaints of farmers in regard to elevators in Manitoba and the Northwest. The commission will be composed of men thoroughly independent of the elevator and railway interests so that the exact position of affairs may be obtained, and the necessary legislation, dealing with the whole subject, will be introduced at the next session of parliament. The statements before the committee, which had the matter under consideration this session, were of a conflicting character.Mr. Sifton says that the commission will go to work during the recess and its report will be ready for next session when the requisite legislation can be obtained.The house sat till Friday morning and fair progress was made on the estimates. The government is now resolved to push business through with all possible expedition, in order to reach prorogation in ten or twelve days. Of course the West Huron election inquiry may cause delay, but the committee is likely to sit from day to day to finish up the business. A very large number of witnesses are to be examined.
It is hoped by many that the Brockville inquiry will not be taken up this session, for fear of prolonging the session, although the government will not resist it, in any way.In the house in connection with a vote of $3,000 for completing the artesian well borings in the Athabasca district for petroleum, the minister of the interior said that he did not think he would take another vote for this purpose if no new information was secured. He thought the utility of the work was more or less doubtful.Mr. Davin said there were vast districts in the Northwest utterly destitute as regards water and he urged that the government should take steps to ascertain whether water could be found in these areas. The minister said he was in sympathy with the proposal and stated he hoped that with the completion of the work of the irrigation commission he would by next session be able to place an intelligent scheme in this connection. He added that boring machines had already been given to the local government for the purpose of well-boring and these were to be supplemented this year by five new ones.Replying to a question as to whether relief was to be accorded to the bondsmen of farmers who had failed to pay for seed grain furnished by the government, Mr. Sifton said a bill re-speccing the subject would be introduced.

THE TETE JAUNE CACHE TRAGEDY.

The Golden Era gives the following particulars of the attempted murder at Tete Jaune Cache:During the winter two men, A. Macauley, a quarterbreed from Prince Albert, aged 29, and J. Hughes, an old man between 50 and 60 years of age, from Kansas, U. S., were trapping in the vicinity of Tete Jaune Cache.
Macaulay had formerly been trapping with Price on Canoe river. When it came to dividing up the skins at the end of the season Macaulay and Hughes had a row. Hughes contended that he had done all the work and had to keep Macaulay, and he wanted the whole of the season's catch. This led to hot words and Hughes says Macauley threatened him. On June 12th, when Macaulay was hitching up his horse, Hughes shot at him, the bullet entering the right eye, tearing through the cheek and carrying away part of the jawbone, and then went through the lungs to the intestines. The injured man, who was accompanied by his half-breed wife and two children,lay for six days till the Edmonton party passed the camp going out. The woman signalled them and they at once sent to Price and Evans on Swift Current. These men went up to the scene of the affray, which is at the junction of the Swift Current with the Fraser. Macaulay was found to be still alive though it was then nine days after he had been shot, but he was unable to take any food. Evans arrested Hughes and arranged for the party to leave for Golden. It was however feared Macaulay would die, and in which case arrangements were made for Price to follow the party.
So badly was the man's face shattered by the shot that Evan's brought out with him part of the jaw bone that had been blown off. Macaulay's wife was attending him and to this woman's faithful nursing was doubtless to be attributed the fact that Macaulay was still alive.Evans brought Hughes to Donald and handed him over to the authorities. Hughes behaved himself splendidly on the trip out, the party arriving at Donald on Sunday last, after a trip of 17 days. Hughes was brought before Mr. Griffith, S.M., charged with the offence and committed for trial, the evidence being sent to the attorney-general for advice as to what course was to be pursued as to having the prisoner tried. The prisoner did not seem to realize his position and appeared to think the American government would come to his rescue. He owned four of the horses brought out.Further particulars go to show that when the shooting occurred Macaulay was packing up to leave. He was bending by his horse to pick up the cinch of the pack-saddle, with his head towards Hughes when the latter fired, using a 44.90 rifle. After passing through the right eye and tearing away cheek and lower jaw the bullet passed through the chin and re-entered the chest over the right lung.Macaulay's wife then re-erected the teepee over him. Hughes took the matter very coolly, digging a grave for his victim and going to the teepee every morning to ask Mrs. Macaulay whether Macaulay was yet dead.The two children which the Mac-auleys had with them were a boy aged three, and a girl aged five years.

CHALMERS' ROAD IMPROVEMENT PARTY.

T. W. Chalmers, D. L. S., and 19 men who have been employed by the Northwest government improving the road between here and Lesser Slave lake, returned yesterday from about four miles beyond Saulteaux creek, at the Swan Hills, the most northerly point reached by them.
The men are: McMullen, foreman;
O. J. Dennis, J. D. Hutton, W. M.
Chalmers, J. M. Strange, T. W. Keegan, Lou Hislop, J. Greenwood, Sidger, Duchesney, McDougall, Mc-Leod, Thornton, Ed. Bigley, J. Pearce, A. Foley, Steve Glane, Geo. Ross, Pat Fullerton, McIntyre and Mahood.The party left Edmonton on the 4th of April, and the first work was commenced at Riviere Qui Barre, consisting of bridging, corduroying, grading and re-cutting. From there general work of ditching, grading, bridging, re-cutting around swamps and taking out stumps was carried on until the Athabasca was reached. At the Athabasca the ferry was moved down the river to the island, a distance of about half a mile, and a bridge built to connect the north shore with the island, a distance of about 100 feet. A truss bridge was also built across Deep Creek, 21 miles beyond the Athabasca.An extensive amount of corduroying was done at different points along the route. The party started back from Saulteaux Creek on the 11th, reaching town on the 19th. Feed was good and flies numerous. The continual wet weather delayed the work and caused the party to return before they otherwise would have.The steamships Roanoke and Garonne will be veritable treasure ships if Dawsonites are to be believed. On June 20th the Kerr left Dawson for St. Michael with $1,000,000, the heaviest individual shipper being Professor Lippey, of Seattle, whose pile is estimated at $300,000. Another heavy shipper was the Canadian Bank of Commerce, whose consigna-ment ran up into the hundreds of thousands, and part of which is royalty collected from the miners in the gulches by the government. E.
C. Complin went out with gold for the bank, accompanied by Sergeant Cornell, of the N. W. M. P. On the Thursday following the steamerPilgrim pulled out for St. Michael with $500,000 more for the bank and quite an amount in smaller sums, carried by outgoing miners.Tenders for Substructure of

A LETTER FROM GREAT SLAVE.

Great Slave Lake, Mar. 9, '99.
EDITOR BULLETIN.

Of course I support the present government, but what I cannot see is their object in "cutting off their own noses" as it were, by not granting us four regular mails each year as we requested. The government would, I am sure, come out ahead of it, in the long run.

Most of my time this winter has been spent in travelling in company with many others to the different mines, staking out claims, after a thorough assay was made of each specimen brought in the previous summer by Indians and half-breeds. Some of these claims are very rich in gold, so much so that the metal can be distinctly seen with the naked eye, and plenty of it. In a high range of hills situated about 100 miles north-east of here there have been in the neighborhood of 40 claims staked and the rough assay of one of them has been $10,000 to the ton of gold. Let us make sure and say an approximate $5,000 and that free milling ore in a slate rock formation. Of course my knowledge of mining is very limited. I leave it to those who are practical miners to judge for themselves. Remember this is only one of the many, we have also two other mines that go a little over and a little under $5,000 to the ton of gold not counting the copper and silver. I am now speaking from a business standpoint. I am not sorry personally or jointly as regards the 100 or so here of the delay or neglect of the government in the past, for this reason we were able to take care for ourselves that what claims we staked out were good, and still left room for thousands of others. There is copper in abundance, galena and silver, worth 87 per cent silver. I wish also to inform my many friends in and about Edmonton that as yet there have been no placer mines discovered, so if they should be inclined to come and try their luck, come prepared to face mountains of rock and plenty of water and very poor accommodation. At the same time I will always be pleased to meet any and everyone. They will always find a welcome at my place. Last week we were honored by a visit from Rev. Mr. Marsh, Miss Marsh and Miss Veitch, from Hay river, having travelled by dog train over the lake, a distance from there of seventy miles, and being obliged to camp out on the snow two nights. They remained two days and returned. The days were to be remembered by both parties. It was their first visit from home, since their arrival at Hay river some three years ago. Miss Marsh has been assisting her brother with the school started by him some years ago for the benefit of the Indians of that place. I must say it is a credit to both and they are deserving of great praise for the advancement of the many children under their care. Miss Veitch, whose health was very poor in the east, accompanied Mrs. Marsh as a companion to return the following year, but has now given up the idea of going back and has made up her mind to let the east come to the north.

We were pleased a few days ago to welcome the arrival of Staff-Sergeant John R. Trotter, who is a credit to the N. W. M. P. He has made many friends in the north during his short sojourn. He is a young man of good habits and just as very impartial in all his dealings both as regards Indians and whites. What a peaceful race of people we must be, here is nearly 1,200 square miles kept in submission by one man. Surely our government can't kick at the expenses, we are all trying to be good children, and by so doing hope that our good master, the government, will give us as a prize-four mails a year. Sergeant Trotter has been kept very busy since his arrival here, going long distances to examine each and every mine. We were only a few comparatively speaking, but you ought to have seen the rush when one party on the 2nd of January disappeared. They were soon followed by his lordship, who came on them before daylight. Before I left and was ready to return, another party arrived, well this was nothing, it being but a short distance from here. The next move was 10 days to go and return, fish had to be taken from here for the round trip which meant 250 lbs of provisions for three or four men so you can see there was very little riding, such was the excitement. People who would hardly be induced to go 200 yards from home, cheerfully started on this long journey and reached their destination and returned with frozen faces. I don't think the Klondike would ever be more excited. Why people were simply crazy and outfit after outfit started out getting their provisions and running the great risk of getting lost and freezing to death. Several parties have returned from down the lake and gone out without a guide or even an idea of the country. The weather has been a spring-like appearance. First rain of the season.

Yours etc.,

E. N.

Advices received by the transport Newport, dated Manila, June 11, are as follows: The volunteers are greatly debilitated in consequence of their hard campaigning through three months of tropic weather. Since the middle of May no volunteer regiment has had a tick list of less than 20 per cent. Many of them at the present date had 25 per cent ill, and few regiments have less than one-third of their number on duty. The Nebraska regiment has the worst. It came in from San Fernando a few days ago with less than 200 men in the ranks. The South Dakota followed yesterday with 275 men on duty. The Montana and Kansas regiments at San Fernando have not more than 280 men available each. The morning after the Washington troops took Morong, only 263 men responded to the roll call.

The 73rd battery of artillery has been ordered to South Africa, making the fifth battery of field artillery now under orders for the Cape. All the gun carriages of these batteries are being painted to match the local color. Thirty machine guns were shipped to the Transvaal to-day.

THE LYCEUM CO.

The Lyceum Co. will arrive on tomorrow night's train and open a three nights engagement in the Robertson Hall here. On Friday the bill will be the very funny comedy "Jane", on Saturday a farce comedy, "The Man in Black", and on Monday, Shakespeare's famous tragedy "Othello." The company received high praise from the papers and if they are half that their press notices claim should provide three nights of decided enjoyment for Edmonton theatre goers.

A WORD ABOUT REPAIRS.

There is no article that is so closely associated with us as a Watch. It regulates all our business, and is either of the greatest value or no value whatever. A watch which is either repaired properly or ruined, and hundreds of fine Watches have been utterly ruined by being practiced upon by unskilled workmen and apprentices. Having been in the jewelry and watch repairing business for the past 18 years in the most reliable shops in some of the largest cities of EUROPE, UNITED STATES and CANADA, from which I have received diplomas and excellent references for my skilled mechanical work, which proves that I am a sufficiently master of my trade. I make this class of work a distinct feature and give it my most scrupulous attention. All work entrusted to my care will be repaired expeditiously and in a superior manner, accompanied with a guarantee for twelve months. I shall do my utmost to gain the confidence of all who favor me with their patronage. One trial will prove.

Hoping to have a call from you, I remain, Yours respectfully,
S. NANKIN,

CALGARY CRICKET TOURNAMENT.

Edmonton cricketers returned from Calgary on Monday, where they had been participating with highly successful results in the tournament. Out of four matches in which they played they were on the winning side three times. Their only defeat was in the match with Pine lake, and this team had been defeated in the tournament by both Calgary and Millerville, who in their turn had been defeated by Edmonton. The Edmonton men speak in the highest terms of praise of the cordial treatment received by them from the cricketers and citizens of Calgary. On Tuesday night a smoking concert was given in honor of the visiting teams. On Wednesday a garden party was held on the grounds of the residence of P. J. Nolin. On Thursday a ball was given in the Opera house, and on Saturday another smoking concert was held in the Sons of England hall. No effort was spared to make their visit enjoyable.

The score in the match "north vs. south" was:

COMMISSEES AT THE CROSSING.

(Special correspondence.)

Peace River Crossing, June 30. After a hard trip we are here. Left Lesser Slave lake, June 26th, Monday, with eight teams furnished by the H. B. Co., but only four men to drive same, necessitating the police driving three teams and the paymaster, H. A. Conroy, another. Besides having to drive these three teams the police had to put up and pull down all tents with the exception of one which was attended to by Dr. West. Mr. Young as well as Mr. Conroy load and unload the wagons, put the covers on and tie and fasten the loads ready for the road, which at this time and during our journey has been as bad as it possibly could be, in fact worse than ever it was known to be before, which, however, does not surprise anybody as it has been raining hard every day since we left the lake. The teams got stuck every hour and the double up was necessary, and at times the horses got mired on the road. As far as the management of the company is concerned on this particular, as well as on other parts of the journey, I think it something marvelous. Four men to drive eight teams and put up tents, etc. They must think their men are corks on the work, but never let imagination run away with their better sense in that way again. They are just the same as any other human beings, and can only do one job at a time. I think the H. B. Co. ought to get a medal for the inefficient way in which they have managed this affair so far. No trackers from the Landing and no teamsters from the lake. Where will it end?

Our camp is pitched at the old storehouse of the H. B. Co. at the Peace River Crossing proper, just below Heart river, and Hon. Mr. Laird expects to have the treaty made and all concerned, that is Indians, paid by Monday night, and to leave here Tuesday morning for the Vermilion by two boats. All in the party are well with the exception of the assistant cook (Kerwin) who has rheumatism and was left behind by Mr. McKenna's party. They left here on the morning of the 28th inst. for St. John, all well.

July 2, '99.

Treaty was signed by the Crees yesterday on the same terms as those at the lake. Eleven heads of families, twenty-four souls in all, are at present in the hand, but some more will be in to-morrow. Five hundred and fifty dollars have been paid out in all including bonuses of $12 each. The Beaver Indians would not sign the treaty here, but said they would go to Dunvegan and sign there. They might, however, do so here yet. Insp. Snyder and Messrs. Ross and McKenna left Dunvegan yesterday morning for St. John. Indians there have not yet been issued rations so they were all out of Dunvegan hunting for something to eat when Mr. Ross and that portion of the treaty party reached there. On that account they did not meet the Indians there, but expect to make treaty on their way back from St. John.

Hon. Mr. Laird said to-day that he might leave here to-morrow, Monday, at 2 p.m. for down the river. The H. B. boatmen and part of the treaty provisions have not arrived from Lesser Slave lake yet. The usual ceremony was gone through by the police viz. the royal salute blown by the bugler, and present arms.

Charlie Anderson, who was sent by the commissioners from Lesser Slave lake with letters, etc., to St. John, made the trip in seven days from the lake on horseback, which is conceded the quickest time ever made over that road.

NEGOTIABLE SCRIP.

In the house of commons on Friday the minister of the interior made an explanation of the report that scrip was being issued to half-breeds in the Northwest and Athabasca, payable to the bearer instead of being payable as promised to the order of the individual receiving it. Some time ago the minister announced that scrip would be issued so that it could not be transferred except by assignment. This was intended to protect half-breeds as much as possible from scrip speculators. The provision would entirely prevent the immediate sale of scrip issued to minors, assignments signed by them of course not being legal until they were of age.

The Indian and half-breed commissioners at a joint meeting recently decided that it was necessary that scrip should be used in the old form, that is payable to the bearer. The reason was that the half-breeds were determined to realize on their own scrip and that of their children at once, and that speculators were buying scrip from them but using a new form to reduce the amount they would give for it. On this fact and the consequent feeling it engendered, the two commissioners based their decision. The Indian commissioners now in the Athabasca country making treaties with the Indians for a formal cession of that country and the half-breed commissioners are issuing scrip to half-breeds therein in extinguishment of their aboriginal title. As the half-breeds have great influence with the Indians it was felt important that they should be satisfied because it is necessary that treaties with Indians should be completed at once, the Indians manifesting considerable restlessness at the number of whites entering their country without treaties having been made. The Indian and half-breed commissioners undertook to issue scrip payable to the bearer and have so notified the minister. Their decision they backed up with a letter of endorsement from Father Lacombe, the well known missionary, who in the past has strongly opposed the issue of negotiable scrip.

The two commissioners are now far into the north country and will not likely be heard from till fall. In view of this the minister stated that apparently the government would be bound to recognize "bearer" scrip issued to the Athabasca district. The question as to the issue in the older parts of the west would be recommended.

CAMILLA.

Tom Williams had a breaking bee on Monday last. He got about eleven acres broken. Crops are looking fine in this vicinity. They have escaped the hail storms so far.

GINSENG AND RENEEA.

McMillans circular says: The rainy weather interfered with digging but the receipts are now increasing. There has been a heavy advance in ginseng. Diggers want to make calculation to secure all they can, particularly of the fall crop, as the outlook is that it will rule at high prices. Seneca root is higher. Not enough is being dug to supply the demand. We require at least 50,000 pounds for immediate orders. We will advance 15 cents a pound on sight draft, railroad receipt attached, for dry seneca, and remit balance on arrival.

Battleford Herald: Except one lot of 800 pounds brought to A. Macdonald, very little seneca root is offering here, although numerous parties are out grafting. A brisk demand at good prices prevail.

ANGUS RIDGE.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilling moved into our district about two weeks ago. We are always glad to welcome good citizens.

Miss Lottie Guild has been visiting her sister Mrs. Gilling. Mr. Wilson has taken up land in British Columbia not far from New Westminster. He intends leaving for the Pacific province either in the fall or spring. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson are held in the highest respect here, and their departure will be a serious loss to the neighborhood.

The following pupils were promoted: Part I to Part II: Maggie Latimer; II to III: Francis Cherington; III to IV: Harry Wallace, Samuel Laroque; IV to V: H. Thrisk, W. Wilson, Ed. Wilson and W. Shantz.

Louis Rix a cousin of Ed. Rix, arrived at the burg from Calgary last Monday. He was formerly from Orillia, Ont.

John Richardson is foreman of the grading being done at present at Mr. Slougher's hill, Battle river. He has several teams at work. The Regina government gave a grant towards the work, during the last session of parliament.

The teacher wishes his pupils a pleasant vacation. Mr. Speers occupied the pulpit here last Sabbath, Mr. Robertson the Methodist minister not having arrived. Several from here intend to take in the Wetaskiwin sports on Monday.
